"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Well these U. S. C. boys has learnt that it is not wise to let your sentiment govern your pocket book.

According to information received by special wire they was a football game in L. A. last Saturday and Spud Murphy as usual picked the wrong side.

We expected that of Spud because he runs pretty usually in bad winner form but we never thought a bright boy like Art

Burmester would be influenced by Spud's opinions regarding football toams.

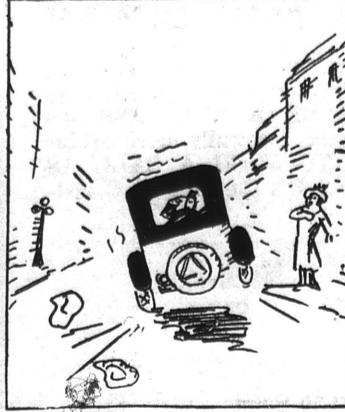

Personally of course I pick Stanford to win and backed up my opinion some wherefore I guess Spud and Art was overdrawn at the bank Monday a.m.

Spud said he bets eight times as much as Art so he should ought to get eight times as much publicity in this here cotyum, but I don't believe in measuring boxes by their lack of judgment and so Spud ain't gonna get no more than Art.

It begins to look as though Spud wouldn't even get his vacation in December unless he spends it reading books from the library that don't cost anything.

Bill Klusman says that there pet mosquito of mine only visits the K. K. K.—Kingsley, Kelsey and Klusman.

There may be some significance in that too because I missed a handkerchief and mebbe Francis stole it for a sheet.

They is so many Swedes over to the Dolley Drug and the annex that if you talk just plain English you is likely to be misunderstood. For example last Sat. a.m. Harry Roberts says that Army is gonna play Yale—and Anna she says play Yale—why I didn't know they let them prisoners out for games like that.

Oh Yes—these here mislead U. S. C. boys they sorta tried to razz me about the U. of Mich. being beat by the Navy last Sat. and when I says something about the Stanford game why Carl Burmaster says well how did Mich. come out and I says Aw you can't kid me and he seen that he couldn't kid me so he shut up. They can't kid me.

The real reason that Mich. was beat by the Navy is that them Mich. players is very patriotic and they beat the Navy so bad last yr. that this yr. their patriotism asserted itself and they thought it would be unpatriotic to beat them navy boys twice in a row so Mich. layed down and let them Navy boys win for once.

I tells that to some U. S. C. boys Sunday and nobuddy was hurt.

LOS ANGELES BILTMORE

Here we are again, after our trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles' close friend. We saw a sign near there, "Orange Juice From Contented Oranges." I suppose they have radios to entertain them in the groves, hot and cold water for irrigation, etc.

I also heard a good one in Hollywood: A girl saw the ad of the play "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" and remarked: "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes—what's that?" I guess she beats Lorelei herself as a dumb dora, eh wot? Until San Francisco concedes that Los Angeles is the best California city—
